Students prepare for finals with Exam Cram

Exam Cram is a traditional end of the semester event hosted by the Oakland University Student Congress, in collaboration with Kresge Library.

For the fall academic semester, the event will take place Wednesday, December 7th, Thursday, December 8th, and Friday, December 9th, at the Kresge Library, from 7:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

The purpose of this event is to provide students with necessary studying and exam materials, including Scantrons, pencils/pens/highlighters, flashcards, post-it notes, and miniature school supply kits.

In addition, food is also provided at the event. There will be themed food nights, including a breakfast night, dessert night, and pizza night.

There will also be some giveaways to provide stress relief to the student body during their most stressful and chaotic time of the semester. During Exam Cram, students will be eligible for giveaways, including mugs and draw-string backpacks featuring the Grizz.

Exams end on December 13. Winter commencement is December 17 and the university closes from December 23 through January 2 for holiday recess.

Exam Cram will be held Wednesday, Dec. 7 through Friday, Dec. 9 at the Kresge Library.
