

A Study in Leadership

SEHS Professor David Strubler's video series on leadership features interview with OU President Ora Hirsch Pescovitz

📅 February 10, 2021

SHARE THIS STORY

A self-described “optimist by nature,” Oakland University's president Ora Hirsch Pescovitz shared her thoughts and philosophy on effective leadership with Professor David Strubler, from Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services and the department of organizational leadership.

The interview is part of Professor Strubler's video series presented to students in the organizational leadership graduate program.

In the video, President Pescovitz shares pivotal moments in her life that shaped her values and discusses her view of various forms of leadership.

To watch/hear 90-second teaser clip, click here.

To watch/hear President's Pescovitz full 44 minute clip on her leadership style and the eight features of extraordinary leaders, click here.

President Pescovitz's interview is part of a video series conceived by Professor David Strubler for his graduate students in the organizational leadership program. Watch teaser clip.

