

2013 Wilson Award Nomination Form

The attached form is to be completed by faculty, staff or students who would like to nominate a senior man and/or a senior woman for the Alfred G. or Matilda R. Wilson Awards. Students who wish to self-nominate should also use this form. Nominees will be required to participate in a brief interview with the nominating committee and are judged on their contributions as scholars, leaders and responsible citizens of the institution. Interest in the social problems of our community and our society is of special significance. Nominees must have maintained a strong academic record of 3.5 or higher GPA.

Undergraduate students who have completed their academic work in summer or fall 2012 terms and those students who will complete their academic work by winter 2013 are eligible for nomination.

If you have any questions, please call the Dean of Students office at (248) 370-3352.

All nominations must be returned to the Dean of Students Office, 144 Oakland Center, by Monday, February 4, 2013.

Each qualified applicant will be required to complete a brief interview with the nomination committee.
