

HUMAN RELATIONS AWARD 2010

In a January 1990 address to the university community, President Joseph E. Champagne announced that the Human Relations Award would become an annual award given at June commencement.

The Human Relations Award recognizes an Oakland University graduate or graduating senior who has displayed significant leadership in advancing intergroup harmony. These contributions include conflict resolution within or among groups and an increased understanding of cultures, groups and nations.

The major consideration of the award is the individual's service to the campus community. Students who have completed their academic work in Summer or Fall 2009 terms, and those students who will complete their academic work by Winter 2010 are eligible for nomination. Nominees must have an academic record of 2.5 or above.

The attached form is to be completed by faculty, staff or students who would like to nominate a senior man and/or a senior woman for the Human Relations Award. Students who wish to self-nominate should also use this form.

If you have any questions, please call the Dean of Students Office at (248) 370-3352.

All nominations must be returned by Monday, February 1, 2010 to the Dean of Students Office, 144 Oakland Center.

Each qualified applicant will be required to complete a brief interview with the nomination committee.
