With a unanimous vote, the Oakland University Board of Trustees re-elected Richard L. DeVore to serve another year as the board chair and David Tull to serve another year as board vice chair.

Mr. DeVore succeeded trustee Mark Schlussel as board chair and Mr. Tull succeeded Mr. DeVore as vice chair in 2016.

DeVore was appointed to OU’s Board of Trustees in July 2013. He is an Executive Vice President of PNC Bank, Regional President of Detroit and Southeast Michigan, part of the PNC Financial Services Group. He also chairs the local PNC Foundation.

Prior to his current role at PNC, DeVore was Credit Executive for Commercial Lending and oversaw Credit Training for PNC Bank. In addition, he was National City Bank’s Chief Credit Officer with responsibility for the National City credit risk management organization and chaired the National City credit risk management committee.

DeVore joined PNC in 1991 and has nearly 40 years of financial institution experience in total. He was named executive vice president in 2001 and assumed his current position in 2010.

DeVore holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Michigan and a master’s degree in business from Wayne State University, where he taught banking and finance courses for four years. In addition, he completed the Wharton School of Advanced Risk Management course in 2008.

Mr. Tull was appointed to Oakland University’s Board of Trustees in August 2014. He is Chairman and founder of Crestmark Bank.

Tull’s career in banking spans more than 40 years, with prior positions that have included Executive Vice President and Treasurer of Michigan National Corporation. During his 23 years at Michigan National Corporation, he held a number of positions of increased responsibility, including head of commercial work-out, head of lending and treasurer.

Tull holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Michigan and a ban degree from the University of Wisconsin Graduate School of Banking. He was the 2007 Regional winner of the Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the Year award for Financial Services/Economic Development.

The next formal Board of Trustees meeting is scheduled for October 16 and will be held at 2 p.m. in the Oakland Center Banquet room A.

---

About the Oakland University Board of Trustees:

Oakland University is governed by an eight-member Board of Trustees appointed by the governor to serve eight-year terms. The board provides general supervision of the university, including control direction of all expenditures from the institution’s funds. The board also appoints the university president, as well as the secretary to the board and treasurer.